

Session I Qs:

1. What is the main purpose of an informative presentation?

- A. To entertain
 - B. To persuade
 - C. To educate the audience
 - D. To sell a product
-

2. Which type of presentation tries to change opinions?

- A. Informative
 - B. Demonstrative
 - C. Persuasive
 - D. Virtual
-

3. What is an example of a persuasive presentation?

- A. A lecture
 - B. A sales pitch
 - C. A training session
 - D. A tutorial
-

4. What is the goal of a demonstrative presentation?

- A. To explain feelings
 - B. To show how to do something
 - C. To motivate people
 - D. To argue
-

5. Which presentation type aims to inspire people?

- A. Informative
 - B. Demonstrative
 - C. Motivational
 - D. Virtual
-

6. Where do virtual presentations take place?

- A. In a classroom only
- B. On paper
- C. Online
- D. On TV only

7. What is an important feature of an effective presentation?

- A. Long sentences
- B. Clarity and conciseness
- C. No structure
- D. No visuals

8. What should presenters avoid?

- A. Clear ideas
- B. Simple language
- C. Jargon and complex sentences
- D. Preparation

9. What helps keep the audience interested?

- A. Reading notes only
- B. Engaging delivery
- C. Silence
- D. No eye contact

10. What are the three main parts of a presentation?

- A. Start, talk, finish
- B. Introduction, body, conclusion
- C. Topic, idea, end
- D. Slides, notes, speech

11. What should the introduction do?

- A. End the talk
- B. Grab attention
- C. Give all details
- D. Show results

12. What is the purpose of visual aids?

- A. To confuse the audience
- B. To replace speaking
- C. To improve understanding
- D. To waste time

13. What is one way to engage the audience?

- A. Ignore them
 - B. Ask questions
 - C. Speak quietly
 - D. Read slides
-

14. Why is preparation important?

- A. To avoid speaking
 - B. To increase confidence
 - C. To make mistakes
 - D. To shorten the talk
-

15. Why is time management important?

- A. To skip parts
 - B. To speak faster
 - C. To cover all points properly
 - D. To avoid planning
-

Session II Questions

1. What are the three main parts of a presentation?

- A. Beginning, middle, end
 - B. Introduction, body, conclusion
 - C. Start, talk, finish
 - D. Topic, slides, summary
-

2. What is the purpose of the introduction?

- A. To end the presentation
 - B. To confuse the audience
 - C. To capture attention and set the stage
 - D. To give examples
-

3. What is a “hook”?

- A. A conclusion
- B. A question or story to attract attention

- C. A slide
 - D. A summary
-

- ✗ 4. What does a purpose statement do?
- A. Tells a story
 - B. Explains grammar
 - C. States the objective of the presentation
 - D. Ends the talk
-

5. Why is a preview of main points important?
- A. It makes the talk longer
 - B. It helps the audience follow the structure
 - C. It confuses listeners
 - D. It replaces the conclusion
-

6. What should the body of a presentation include?
- A. Only jokes
 - B. Main ideas and supporting details
 - C. Only introduction
 - D. Only visuals
-

7. What is "signposting"?
- A. Writing notes
 - B. Using transitions like "First" and "Next"
 - C. Showing pictures
 - D. Ending the talk
-

8. What type of structure presents events in time order?
- A. Problem-solution
 - B. Thematic
 - C. Chronological
 - D. Cause-effect
-

9. Which structure introduces a problem and then gives a solution?
- A. Chronological

B. Problem-solution

C. Thematic

D. Descriptive

10. What is the purpose of supporting evidence?

A. To confuse the audience

B. To make the talk longer

C. To strengthen ideas and add credibility

D. To replace main points

11. What should a conclusion include?

A. New ideas only

B. Summary of key points

C. Long explanations

D. More questions

12. What is a call to action?

A. Asking the audience to sleep

B. Encouraging the audience to take action

C. Ending without speaking

D. Showing slides

13. Which is a good way to start a presentation?

A. Reading notes only

B. Starting with a strong hook

C. Ending quickly

D. Ignoring the audience

14. Why should the closing be memorable?

A. To make the talk longer

B. To leave a strong impression

C. To add new topics

D. To confuse listeners

15. Why is time management important?

- A. To skip the introduction
 - B. To rush the conclusion
 - C. To cover all parts properly
 - D. To avoid speaking
-

Session III Questions

1. What is the main goal of engaging an audience?

- A. To finish quickly
 - B. To entertain only
 - C. To ensure the message is understood
 - D. To read slides
-

2. What does verbal communication include?

- A. Body language
 - B. Eye contact
 - C. Words and tone
 - D. Movement
-

3. What should a speaker avoid in tone?

- A. Loud voice
 - B. Monotonous tone
 - C. Clear speech
 - D. Pauses
-

4. Why are pauses important?

- A. To confuse the audience
 - B. To save time
 - C. To help the audience understand
 - D. To end the talk
-

5. What is storytelling used for?

- A. Making content relatable
- B. Filling time

- C. Avoiding questions
 - D. Ending early
-

6. What do rhetorical questions do?
- A. Require answers
 - B. Test memory
 - C. Encourage thinking
 - D. Stop interaction
-

7. What kind of language should be used?
- A. Complex
 - B. Technical only
 - C. Simple and clear
 - D. Long sentences
-

8. What is one way to interact with the audience?
- A. Ignore them
 - B. Read slides
 - C. Ask for opinions
 - D. Speak faster
-

9. What is an example of nonverbal communication?
- A. Vocabulary
 - B. Grammar
 - C. Eye contact
 - D. Speech
-

10. Why is eye contact important?
- A. To read notes
 - B. To connect with the audience
 - C. To check slides
 - D. To relax
-

11. Crossing arms may show:
- A. Confidence

- B. Happiness
 - C. Defensiveness
 - D. Energy
-

12. What should facial expressions match?
- A. Slides
 - B. Tone of message
 - C. Notes
 - D. Time
-

13. What is important for visual aids?
- A. Lots of text
 - B. Bright colours only
 - C. Clear and simple design
 - D. Long sentences
-

14. What is good posture?
- A. Sitting down
 - B. Standing confidently
 - C. Moving too much
 - D. Looking down
-

15. A successful speaker should:
- A. Use only words
 - B. Avoid gestures
 - C. Combine verbal and nonverbal techniques
 - D. Read all notes
-

Session IV Questions

1. Why are visual aids important in presentations?
- A. To replace the speaker
 - B. To confuse the audience
 - C. To enhance understanding and engagement
 - D. To waste time
-

2. What should you consider when choosing a visual aid?
- A. The speaker's clothes
 - B. The content, audience, and setting
 - C. The classroom size only
 - D. The number of slides
-

3. What are slides best used for?
- A. Writing long paragraphs
 - B. Structuring information clearly
 - C. Avoiding speaking
 - D. Drawing pictures
-

4. What should you avoid when using slides?
- A. Clear fonts
 - B. Simple design
 - C. Too much text
 - D. Bullet points
-

5. What are charts and graphs best for?
- A. Telling stories
 - B. Showing emotions
 - C. Presenting numerical data
 - D. Writing notes
-

6. What is a good use of images?
- A. To distract the audience
 - B. To create emotional connection
 - C. To replace all text
 - D. To fill empty slides
-

7. What should you avoid when using images?
- A. High-quality pictures
 - B. Relevant visuals
 - C. Too many or low-quality images
 - D. Clear captions
-

8. What are videos useful for?
- A. Showing processes and tutorials
 - B. Writing notes
 - C. Replacing slides
 - D. Ending the presentation
-

9. How long should videos be?
- A. Very long
 - B. Under 2 minutes
 - C. Over 10 minutes
 - D. No limit
-

10. What are whiteboards best for?
- A. Passive presentations
 - B. Reading text
 - C. Interactive presentations
 - D. Showing videos
-

11. What is one principle of good slide design?
- A. Complexity
 - B. Simplicity
 - C. Long text
 - D. Bright colours only
-

12. What does consistency mean in slides?
- A. Using different fonts
 - B. Changing colours often
 - C. Keeping the same style throughout
 - D. Adding many effects
-

13. What improves readability?
- A. Small fonts
 - B. Low contrast
 - C. Clear fonts and good contrast
 - D. Long sentences
-

14. What is the purpose of animations?

- A. To distract the audience
 - B. To highlight key points
 - C. To slow the presentation
 - D. To replace speaking
-

15. What is a good rule for transitions?

- A. Use many different effects
 - B. Use simple and consistent transitions
 - C. Avoid all transitions
 - D. Use very slow transitions
-

Session V Questions

1. Which is the most appropriate way to start a presentation?

- A. What's up everyone
- B. Good morning ladies and gentlemen
- C. Hey guys listen
- D. Hello people

2. "I'm going to talk about ..." is used to:

- A. End the presentation
- B. Introduce the topic
- C. Ask questions
- D. Give examples

3. "I'd like to give you an overview of ..." means:

- A. Finish quickly
- B. Give a general summary
- C. Ask for opinions
- D. Show a graph

4. "My talk will be in three parts" refers to:

- A. Timing
 - B. Structure
 - C. Audience
 - D. Equipment
-

Part 2: Structure & Organization

5. Which comes first in a presentation?

- A. Conclusion
- B. Questions
- C. Introduction
- D. Discussion

6. “First... Second... Third...” is used for:
 - A. Greeting
 - B. Listing points
 - C. Ending
 - D. Apologizing
 7. A good presentation should have:
 - A. Only one idea
 - B. No structure
 - C. Beginning, middle, end
 - D. Only visuals
 8. “Let’s move to the next part...” is used to:
 - A. End the talk
 - B. Change topic
 - C. Ask questions
 - D. Show data
-

Part 3: Using Visuals

9. Which is a type of visual support?
 - A. Email
 - B. Pie chart
 - C. Notebook
 - D. Chair
 10. A bar chart is used to:
 - A. Show proportions
 - B. Show comparisons
 - C. Show maps
 - D. Show videos
 11. “This graph shows ...” is used to:
 - A. Introduce visuals
 - B. End the talk
 - C. Ask questions
 - D. Greet audience
 12. When describing trends, “a rise” means:
 - A. A decrease
 - B. No change
 - C. An increase
 - D. A mistake
-

Part 4: Delivery & Skills

13. Good delivery includes:
 - A. Speaking very fast
 - B. No eye contact
 - C. Confidence and clear voice
 - D. Reading only

14. Body language includes:
- A. Slides
 - B. Eye contact and gestures
 - C. Charts
 - D. Notes
15. Visuals should be:
- A. Complex and long
 - B. Clear and relevant
 - C. Very colourful only
 - D. Full of text
-

Part 5: Ending & Questions

16. “That’s all I want to say for now” is used to:
- A. Start
 - B. End
 - C. Ask
 - D. Compare
17. “Are there any questions?” is used to:
- A. Begin
 - B. Invite discussion
 - C. Show visuals
 - D. Apologize
18. If you don’t understand a question, you can say:
- A. Ignore it
 - B. Answer quickly
 - C. Could you repeat the question?
 - D. Leave
19. A good conclusion should:
- A. Add new topics
 - B. Summarize main points
 - C. Be very long
 - D. Have no structure
20. If a question is outside your topic, you should:
- A. Guess
 - B. Ignore
 - C. Say it’s outside scope
 - D. Stop presentation
-